

Ian Pessol, 1997

What Career are you in, and what sort of things does this entail?

Railway Signalling Project engineer. Renewal and of signalling systems all over the British rail network.

Specialising in level crossing upgrades

What inspired you to go into your chosen career?

Mr Lees electronics class!!

I went to the careers office and said I like electronics. Traffic lights for trains is what I got 😊

What advice would you give to anyone interested in working in your career area?

It's a very much who you know industry.

Apprenticeships are amazing for most countries.

Reach out to the companies and ask if they have a programme

What do you know now, that you wish you'd known when you were leaving Malbank?

That a uni qualification isn't the bee all and end all.

Apprenticeships offer lead to the same place on the career ladder

If you would like to get in touch with Matt to find out more about careers like this, please contact Mr Batty in the Sixth Form Office, or via Teams