

Dan Wakeham, 2013

What Career are you in, and what sort of things does this entail?

Sports, Lead academy performance analyst at Port Vale FC.

Developed analysis program for player development, allows them to clip their own games and present to us. Pre-match and post-match presentations for U18 team.

What inspired you to go into your chosen career?

Always played football throughout school and enjoyed the GCSE PE sports courses which added to my knowledge and interest to other sides of just playing football.

What advice would you give to anyone interested in working in your career area?

Do something you love. Be organised and hardworking within the football industry.

What do you know now, that you wish you'd known when you were leaving Malbank?

Being organised, prepared and just a general good human being goes a long way.
