What Career are you in, and what sort of things does this entail?

I am an Activity coordinator for the Wingate centre, a local charity. My Day to day role involves running activities classes such as arts & crafts and multi sports. I am also a qualified rebound therapist. This involves using a trampoline as a therapy tool to assist people with disabilities. I am also a cheerleading coach in my spare time.

What inspired you to go into your chosen career?

I've always enjoyed helping people. I also enjoyed organising activities and events when I was a member of student council.

What advice would you give to anyone interested in working in your career area?

Follow your passion! Kindness and understanding is key.

What do you know now, that you wish you'd known when you were leaving Malbank?

Happiness over money. It's so important to love what you do.
