

Lucy Landolt, 2010

What Career are you in, and what sort of things does this entail?

I am the finance assistant of the International Scout Centre in Kandersteg. I do the bookkeeping for a charity with a 5mil turnover and this year is our centenary year

What inspired you to go into your chosen career?

I love Scouting and have been an accountant for 6 years so it was a natural fit

What advice would you give to anyone interested in working in your career area?

Get into accounting via an apprenticeship not a degree

What do you know now, that you wish you'd known when you were leaving Malbank?

You don't need to go to uni to succeed in life, you can get paid to study and have no debt
