

Karl Prince, 1996

What Career are you in, and what sort of things does this entail?

Hospitality now general manager. Previous head chef change of career in a way but still in the same trade

What inspired you to go into your chosen career?

I loved my home economics lesson with Mrs Hubbard making mainly pineapple upside down cakes. Great times and felt this was a good industry for me to proceed in and 27 year's down the line haven't left.

What advice would you give to anyone interested in working in your career area?

Be sure it's what you want to do. As this trade is very long unsociable hours. Not just to friends but further on in life your family. This trade dose give you fantastic options and career progression I. It's good when you reach the top but it comes with hard work and dedication

What do you know now, that you wish you'd known when you were leaving Malbank?

My maths has progressed massively. My English has come alot having to deal with the public. Science obviously on a food level really helps aswell.
