What advice would you give to anyone interested in working in your career area?

Ask for help. Show up to stuff, be honest and open about what excites you, and make friends. It's all about relationships.

What do you know now, that you wish you'd known when you were leaving Malbank?

It's ok not to know what you want to do, and it's ok to leave something that isn't serving you- yes it's all experience but better to leave a situation than have to undo the damage later
