

At Malbank we will

Prior Knowledge	Current	Future
Pupils should have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - knowledge of how World War One affected Medicine from the Modern Medicine unit. - Knowledge of conditions that soldiers faced in the trenches during WWI (Y9 unit of work). 	HEAD - Knowledge	Pupils should go on to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - use source skills and apply them to the Summer GCSE exam in Y11.
	 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - understand the problems that soldiers faced in the trenches. - Understand why medical treatment was difficult to administer during WWI. - Understand the medical advancements that were made during WWI.
	HEART - Personal Development
 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - empathise with the problems that soldiers faced in the trenches. - Empathise with the issues that surgeons/nurses faced administering medical care during WWI.
HAND - Skills	 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Assess the usefulness of a source in relation to an enquiry question (exam Q skill) - Assess how much medical progress was made during WWI 	