

Medicine through time – Medieval (1250-1500)

At Malbank we will

Prior Knowledge	Current	Future
Pupils should have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - an understanding of the role that the church played in Medieval society. 	HEAD - Knowledge	Pupils should go on to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - forge links between: Renaissance, Industrial and Modern Medicine. - utilise some similar exam skills in their other exam topics/papers.
	 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Understand peoples' beliefs about what caused disease during the Medieval period. - Understand how people tried to treat disease during the Medieval period. - Understand how people tried to prevent disease during the Medieval period. - Understand what care/hospitals were available during the Medieval period. - Understand the factors that affected change/continuity in the Medieval period.
	HEART - Personal Development
 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Be able to empathise with people during the Medieval period in relation to the limited medical options that were available.
HAND - Skills	 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Be able to use relevant contextual knowledge to support my answers. - Be able to explain why there was change/continuity in medicine during the Medieval period. - Be able to assess what factors helped or hindered medicine during the Medieval period. 	